Renouard de Vallière celebrated for his Sorbonne

By awarding the Chevalier de la Légion d'Honneur decoration to Pascal Renouard de Vallière, Valérie Pécresse symbolically thanked the individual who initiated the Sorbonne Abu Dhabi project, which was inaugurated on February 13th of this year. At the Ministry for Higher Education and Research, the honored recipient also referred to the Louvre Museum in Abu Dhabi, whose idea was his, and which will open in 2016, and also to a cardiology research centre that he wants to create in the Middle East. The ambitions of a man with a big heart.
